In addition to the above publications, I authored without credit or edited on a regular basis articles for the NFPA Journal or NFPA Fire Command magazines while on staff with NFPA. The articles were on the NFPA Life Safety Code, or one of 16 NFPA standards addressing building construction including Smoke Control Systems, HVAC Systems, Fire Doors and Windows. As Secretary of the Architects, Engineers, and Building Officials Section of NFPA, I wrote and published their quarterly newsletter.

Submission of proposals for the International Building Code, NFPA Codes, and the Standard Building Code has resulted in several of these proposals being published.
