Occupation(s)

Current: Recognized expert witness for physical use of force (UoF) in international, federal, and state courts. Focus areas include police practices, proper investigation of UoF events (including deadly force), related human performance factors, police policy, police training, civilian self-defense, excessive force, and officer-involved shootings. I am a certified video analyst focusing on using video to understand and analyze UoF events.

My doctoral research area focused on exploring the link between visualizing intelligence, giving it meaning (sensemaking), critical thinking, insight generation, and decision-making. My post-doctoral Masters degree in Psychology continued this research. I apply the knowledge from my research alongside human performance factors and video analysis to evaluate physical UoF events within their context and environment.

Full-time consultant. Consult in areas and problems involving systems thinking, sensemaking, complexity/wicked problems, big data (visualization to insight), intelligence, data-driven decision-making, and socio-cultural intelligence/information modeling. Consultant and advisor to health analytics and related social determinates (systems approach/ complexity/wicked problem approach).

Areas of experience include international humanitarian assistance and disaster relief (HA/DR), DoD Joint Technology research evaluation and development, and the extraction of practical insight from intelligence in support of strategic decision-making. 23+ years (ret.) in law enforcement operations, including patrol, corrections, investigations, training, and command, combined with 30+ years with U.S. Army Special Operations and Peacekeeping (Special Forces, Civil Affairs, and Psychological Operations).

Police (retired): Retired from the Washington County Sheriff's Office (WCSO) in 2017 after 23 years of service. For the last two years, I was the primary/lead investigator of an agency-wide internal affairs (I.A.) investigation, resulting in multiple criminal convictions of police officers and terminations. My final assignment was as the Investigations Lieutenant (Lt.) of Enforcement-West for approximately six years. The WCSO is composed of four divisions: Patrol, Investigations Services, and the Jail, with approximately 540 employees. The WCSO serves as the lead agency for the region and the state and oversees calls ranging from simple citizens needing assistance to gang-related homicides, regional drug interdiction, and multi-million-dollar fraud cases.

Special projects and collateral duties included (partial list):

- Oversight of the Special Investigations Unit (SIU), property crimes, violent crimes, child & sex abuse crimes, fraud & identity theft crimes, and the forensic science unit sections. (Investigations Division)
- WCSO Representative to RegJIN Analytical Working Group (Portland Metro Region)
- Statewide Mental Health & Law Enforcement Synchronization Project (Advisor & Lead)
- Training Liaison (Patrol, Investigations & Jail Divisions)
- Intelligence Development & Oversight (Investigations & Patrol Division)
- Crisis Negotiations Unit (C.N.U.) Commander (Interagency), From 2010-to 2017
- Incident Command System (I.C.S.) integration (Investigations & Patrol Division)
- Police Use of Force Oversight and Review Committee (WCSO)
- Crisis Negotiation Team Commander (WCSO)
- Mobile Response Team Commander (WCSO)
- Washington County Human Rights Committee Member
- Field Training Program Oversight (Patrol, Investigations & Jail Divisions)
- Search & Rescue Commander (WCSO)
- Veterans/Military Liaison (WCSO)
- Domestic Violence Response Team (DVRT)

Military Consultant:

Prior advisor and consultant in support of related efforts and initiatives involving the United States Central Command (USCENTCOM), the United States Africa Command (USAFRICOM), the United States Civil Affairs and Psychological Operations Command (USACAPOC(A)), as well as the United States Special Operations Command (USSOCOM) for the advancement of concept technologies related to socio-cultural problem sets encountered by the warfighter and their decision-makers. Consulted with SunTek Inc. and Gramercy Hill Partners for business intelligence, Sensemaking, and operational expertise and management, often related to a governmental or DoD problem set. Previously employed for similar entities designing analytical requirements that move data to workable decisions and understanding the interrelated systems of systems analysis required for workable decisions to be formed. The primary focus is on the decision process, reducing fragmentation. Additionally, consult/advise related to doctoral research areas of wicked problems and Sensemaking with entities associated with the Department of Justice (DoJ), Department of Homeland Security (D.H.S.), Law Enforcement (L.E.), and Humanitarian Aid (H.A.)/Disaster Response and Recovery (D.R.).

Expert Witness:

Qualified as an expert witness in state and federal courts related to police practices, police use of force, decision-making, officer-involved shootings, police tactics, police training, incident command, and police/jail operations. Also qualified with similar expertise for civilian self-defense and use of force events.

Military (Ret.):

Retired U.S. Army Sergeant Major (SGM) after 30+ years of service. Served in both the active and reserve forces. Primary specialties include job specialties of Special Forces Senior Operations SGM (18Z), Special Forces Communications (18E), Special Forces Operations and Intelligence (18F), Civil Affairs (38B), and Psychological Operations (37F).
