

Mr. Kuscher is fully qualified as an expert witness by knowledge, education, training, and experience (as per rule 702). He has nearly 40 years of hands-on operational experience. In addition, he has extensive teaching experience at the college level, including food safety instruction.

QUALIFICATIONS

Certified ServSafe Instructor.

Trainer: NEHA Food Safety / National Environmental Health Association.

Trainer: Currently under a trainer contract with nine restaurants in the Miami, Florida area.

During the last five years, I have taught over 200 food safety classes to food service managers.

Disposition experience as a food service expert.

UNIVERSITY EDUCATION

MBA / MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, Inter-American University, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE, Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, Hofstra University, Hempstead, New York.

PROFESSIONAL HISTORY – 2005 to present PRESIDENT

Organization: Brunswick Food Service Educators

Provide ServSafe Florida approved Food Manager certifications.

Provide Florida approved Food Handler certificates.

Have offered restaurant consultation and safety oversight services since 2005.

EARLIER EMPLOYMENT HISTORY:

Director of Operations for the National Restaurant Association for 5 ½ years.

Owner of Koki Foods Group.

Operated a food service operation at the Department of Health and Human Services, Army Military Command.

Appointed U.S. Army Philip A. Connolly Army Evaluator, 2008 and 2012.

Traveled with the rank of Brigadier General.

Previously was a franchisee with Dunkin' Donuts and Starbucks.

COLLEGE TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Lecturer: Cornell University, School of Hotel Administration.

Food service, including food safety

Adjunct Professor: Florida Atlantic University, School of Business.

Food service, including food safety

REFERENCE

References provided upon request.

FEE SCHEDULE:

Consultation work, review of cases, and court appearance – $350 per hour

Travel time – $100 per hour

Retainer non-refundable ($2,000) but applies to time spent on case deducted from the final bill